

Why you should get an ORCID

It makes your life easier

- Unique, it clears up name confusion
- Universal and interoperable, used by many research institutions, funders and publishers.
- Permanent, even if you change institutions.

It makes your research visible

- your research results and activities are correctly attributed to you
- your publications are better spotted by search engines and taken into account in citation indexes and bibliometric tools
- easy to share on social media, strengthens your web presence
